

Local and General.

This week the voice of the hop-pickers is heard throughout the Willamette valley.

Attention is directed to Chitrohill & Montague's column "ad," which appears this week.

Dr. J. L. Hill of Albany, advertises for 5,000 claspboards in another column. See "ad."

Attention is directed to the change in the Oregonian Ry. time card. Also Oregon Development company.

Montague believes in printers ink. See how he spreads it on the Little Red School House shoe "ad." It is literally covered.

Attention is directed to the "ad" of E. W. Orebough Brownsville, by which it will be seen a good horse and buggy can be bought at a bargain.

Mr. Geo. W. Pugh has recently opened a store in Brownsville. He carries a nice line of confectioneries, cigars, tobaccos and millinery goods.

C. C. Hackleman returned Tuesday night from McCoy, Polk county, where he was with the bedside of his youngest sister, who is very sick.

We have received some interesting correspondence from Scio, which we regret came too late, for this issue. It should have reached us Wednesday.

Pacific coast hops, new choice is quoted in San Francisco at 24@25 cents; medium, 20@22 cents. The indications are that hops will be a fair price this year.

It is to be feared from present indications, that the weather is not going to be agreeable for hop-picking. It is also feared that some of the spring grain will be lost if it rains much more.

Among those of the pioneers at Crawfordville last week, we were pleased to meet Mr. Z. B. Moss, one of our first subscribers to the Express. Mr. Moss has our thanks for $2 for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Reynolds near Lebanon, return their sincere thanks to their many friends who assisted them during the recent sickness of their little Archie, who died August 20th.

The Mechanics' Fair this year will surpass all previous exhibitions. It is eagerly sought by those who never before made a display, and novelties are promised by old exhibitors. The Marion county fair will be like a pin-a-popsh compared with the grandest at the Portland Pavilion.—Welcome.

On Saturday evening last a boy by the name of Cooley, while wrestling with his brother, had his leg broken near the hip. The unfortunate boy belonged to a family of immigrants who were camped at the time near George Burkhardt's. Country was called and set the broken limb.

The railroad commission held a regular monthly session at Salem on Monday last. A complaint from Jas. D. Bennett, of Roseburg, against the O. & C., similar to the one which was filed with the commission at the Portland session, was received, and action deferred until after settlement of the case at Albany on Tuesday.

While in Brownsville last week we regretted to find our friend Pillsbury, the jeweler, almost prostrate with another attack of rheumatism. He deserves better things in this world, and we had hoped his visit to Brownsville this summer would result more beneficial, but it seems the disease is very stubborn and hard to conquer.

Gov. Sylvester Penney left for the East last Sunday morning via the Canadian Pacific railroad. There was quite a delegation at the Northern Pacific station to bid him adieu. His Excellency on voyage and a safe return. He will go to Philadelphia to attend the three days celebration of the centennial of the constitution and will also visit Washington, D. C. in all he will be gone about three weeks.

The greatest obstruction along the line of the Oregon Pacific below Meama is said to be Skipper's dam, a large promontory jutting on the Santiam river. The cut through this obstruction will be three hundred feet in length and from ten to sixty feet deep. A force of two hundred men are now engaged in blasting, and it is estimated that three months will be required to complete the grade for the track.

Our merchants may be termed liberal advertisers, in every sense of the word. They are live business men. We appreciate the fact that we are doing business in a town where citizens are progressive and are alive to the importance of sustaining any enterprise for the benefit of the town. Lebanon is improving, and our spark many of the other towns in the valley for business and enterprise.

On Friday last on the way to Crawfordville we met 150 Warm Spring Indians on their way to the gravel hop yards in this county. They had about 200 ponies with them; a like number of dogs and papposes, which certainly know the Indians, and the descendants of Lo is fast disappearing from the earth. A number of these Indians passed through Lebanon on Tuesday, to secure the cards before town where they have been employed for the season. One of them is worth a dozen moon-eyed Mongolians in a hop patch.

The discoveries on Blue river are likely to develop into good mines. G. W. Dymon and others interested, have succeeded in interesting the merchants and business men of Brownsville, and a purse of $85 has been made up for the purpose of making a trail via the Cui-pooa river, to where the discoveries have been made. Eighteen men are now at work upon the trail. We hope these mines may prove to be bonanzas, and of untold benefit to the prosperity of Linn county, and especially to the discoverers.

An Old Lady Assaulted.

Mr. F. Krieg gives us the particulars of the outrage and attempted robbery of Mrs. Joseph Flynn, in the vicinity of Waterloo, on Friday evening last. A villainous tramp called at the house, and finding no one at home but Mrs. Flynn, aged about 70, demanded something to eat. This was refused, when he began to swear, and told Mrs. Flynn he wanted her money. She told him she had none, but he grew insulting and told her that every farmer had a little money, and he wanted it and proposed to have it. The frightened woman started toward the bed room for the purpose of getting a gun, when the tramp struck her upon the head with a club, knocking her down. A dog outside at this juncture barked a furious barking and the tramp, hearing some one was coming, fled. Mrs. Flynn lay in an insensible condition upon the floor for some time, while the wound upon her head bled profusely, presenting a shocking picture of the work of the murderous tramp. When other members of the family returned the tramp was nowhere in sight. Medical assistance was summoned for Mrs. Flynn and at last accounts she was not in a serious condition. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the tramp, and parties are hunting for him, but up to this date he has not been seen. Our citizens along the mountain road should be on the alert for such brutes, as many of them are going to and from the road front, on the pretense of looking for work. An example will be made of some of them, yet.

Go to Cyrus for the Celebrated Morrison Plow. He keeps them.

PIONEERS' MEETING.

An interesting time at Crawfordville. Proceedings of the Organization of the Pioneer Association of Linn County, Oregon.

Some time ago, Mr. J. L. Scott, and two or three other pioneers living at Crawfordville, this county, conceived the idea of forming a Pioneer Association, and accordingly a meeting was appointed for September 1, 2, and 3.

It is to be regretted that the weather except the first day, was unfavorable for camping which kept many from attending.

Upon the arrival of the editor of the Express, on Thursday morning—who by the way, was the only representative of the Linn county press evidently deeming the occasion worthy their attendance—they found the beautiful camp ground deserted, the people having taken refuge in the school house from the rain which was descending in deluging torrents.

It is a grand thing to meet with these self-reliant people, and listen to their experiences while "Crossin' the Plains" in the "Forties and Fifties," and the hardships endured in many instances, after their arrival here. It is only after a recital of the exciting events, and almost unendurable hardships, as related by some of the hardy pioneers, which assembled at Crawfordville last week, that we who came more recently, can appreciate the sublime grandeur of the magnificent hardships few enjoy, and which are shaped by them, who to be a pioneer in Oregon, meant a renunciation of life's greatest blessings, and the assumption of all the hardships incident to the hazardous undertakings of pioneer life.

The meeting was a very interesting one, as the proceedings which we give in full as follows, will show.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 1. Association met pursuant to appointment. The first order of business was addresses by several pioneers.

Resolved, That the time of each year, beginning from the earliest up to and including 1854, take designated seats, adopted.

On motion, meeting proceeded to organize the Linn County Association of Linn County, Oregon.

The name of R. Glass being presented he was unanimously chosen president.

Vice-Presidents—G. T. Colbert, Caleb Gray, G. W. Carey.

Secretary—Rev. R. Robe. Corresponding Secretary—T. A. Riggs.

Treasurer—H. Powell. On motion an invitation was extended to all who desired to join the Association, to give their names to the secretary.

After quite a number had signed the roll, the Association adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock A. M.

FRIDAY SEPT. 2. Weather not permitting to hold a meeting in the grove, Association convened at the Presbyterian church, President R. Glass in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. P. J. Wilson. On motion, a committee of three on Constitution and By-laws, consisting of W. R. Kirk, William McCoy and James Blakely, was appointed to report at the next regular meeting.

On motion, the time and place of next regular meeting was fixed for the last Wednesday of June, 1888, at Crawfordville.

Resolved, That the present board of officers act as an executive committee, until next meeting, adopted.

Adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION. Music by the Crawfordville cornet band.

Speeches by pioneers and others. Mrs. A. J. Warren, of Brownsville, having arrived, on motion of one of the members, she was received as a member of the association by acclamation, an honor highly merited from the fact that she was the first white child born west of the Rocky mountains.

It was our pleasure some time since, while publishing the Brownsville Informant, to refer to this estimable lady and her early life in Idaho and Oregon. She truly deserves a prominent place in the history of Oregon pioneers.—[Ed.]

On motion, the association adjourned to meet on the last Wednesday of June, 1888.

The following is a list of names of the members of the association, giving the year they "Crossed the Plains," and so far as could be learned, the state of their nativity:

Table with 4 columns: Names, Native State, Cro's'd Plains, and other details. Lists names like Mrs. A. J. Warren, Mrs. Walters, Mrs. E. Lewis, etc., with their respective states and years of migration.

C. B. MONTAGUE'S COLUMN.

Things of the state, and it may be that the Express may fall into the hands of some one who will scan them with intense interest as they revive, perhaps, almost forgotten reminiscences of the by-gone, but more "Bovine" than as it wended its way wearily across grassy plains and sandy deserts towards the setting sun.

That the association formed at Crawfordville, may be the means of many happy reunions, and that those who compose it may live to enjoy many fraternal greetings, as they meet from time to time, around their campfires, memorable of their early conflicts, is the earnest wish of THE EXPRESS.

Prohibition and Prayer. The following from one of Hon. Anselmy Gray's lectures brings the question home to professing Christians who are withholding their support from Prohibitory Amendment.

"I respect the opinions of all men, but I cannot understand how a man can pray: 'Our father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name'—and then go to the ballot box and vote to desert that name. I cannot understand how one can pray: 'Thy Kingdom come'—and then go to the ballot box and vote for Satan's kingdom come. I cannot understand how one can pray: 'Give us this day our daily bread'—and then cast a vote to take bread from the mouth of the white-faced woman and thin-lipped child. I cannot understand how one can pray: 'Lead us not into temptation'—and then cast a vote that thrusts temptation in a brother's way. Nor how at the altar one can pray for the drunkard, and at the ballot box vote to make drunkards—around is inhumanity, above an insulted God!"
